

Windows : task scheduler

- Go to the Control Panel :

- Click on schedule tasks, this window will open :

- Click on Create Task...
→ Now, you can configure your task

Windows : task scheduler

- Configure your task :

3 main tab to describe your task :

- General (name, description) ,
- Triggers (How often the task is launched ?),
- Actions (What is executed by your task?),

Windows : task scheduler

- tab General :
 - name of the task and description

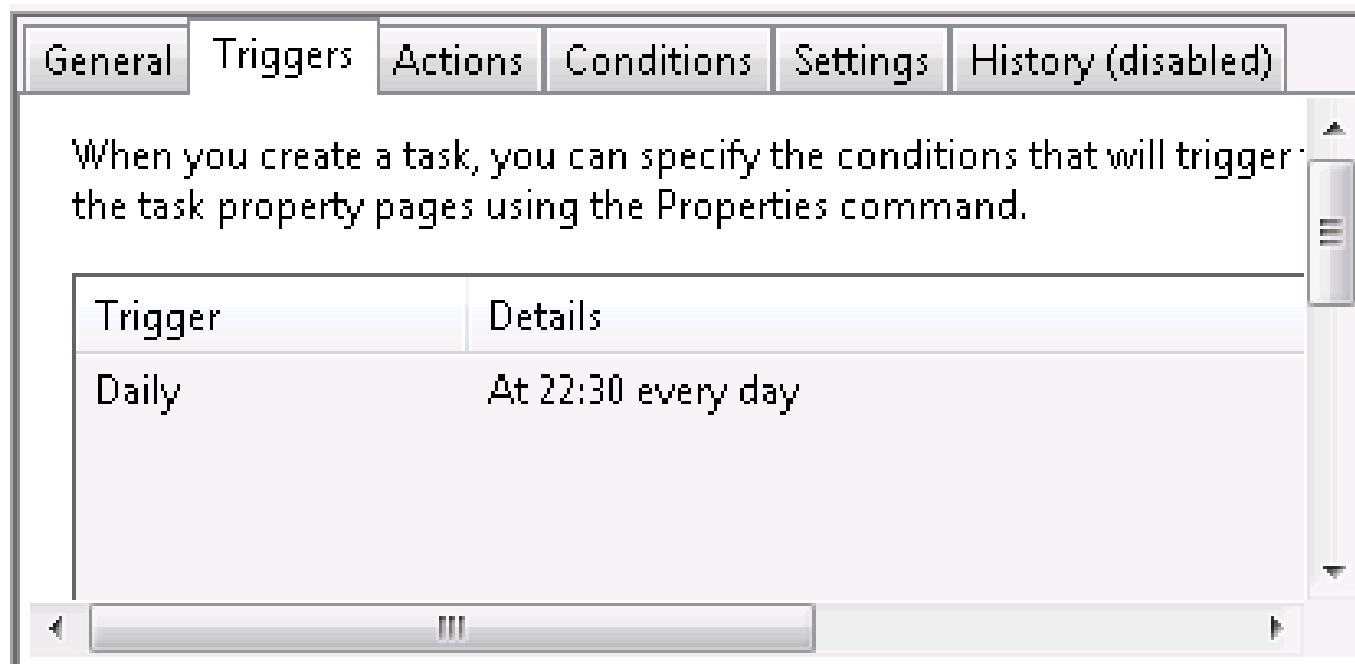

The image shows a screenshot of the Windows Task Scheduler interface, specifically the 'General' tab. The task is named 'faust'. The location is set to the root of the current user's profile. The author is 'INRIACI-LOPQ8CC\ci'. The description is 'run ctest nightly all the nighth'. The interface includes tabs for General, Triggers, Actions, Conditions, Settings, and History (disabled). A vertical scrollbar is visible on the right side of the description field.

General	Triggers	Actions	Conditions	Settings	History (disabled)
Name:	faust
Location:	\
Author:	INRIACI-LOPQ8CC\ci
Description:	run ctest nightly all the nighth

Windows : task scheduler

- tab Trigger :
 - How often the task is launched ?

Windows : task scheduler

- tab Actions :

→ What is executed by your task?

